Our Great Inventory

After the rush and whirl of the past few weeks comes the general clearing up and inventory. That there has been some wreckage goes without saying, to those that witnessed the crowded condition of store for the two weeks and more before Christmas.

But what is our loss we mean to make your gain, especially will you find it so in Toilet Sets and Dinner Sets.

It needs very close inspection to find one imperfection and yet some of them have a nick or one piece gone, but in place of the nick you will find a large hole in the price and when one piece is mi-sing two are gone from the price.

Until inventory is taken all perfect goods in these two departments can be bought at 10 per cent off.

TOM SHARKEY WINS.

Whisped "Kid" McCoy In a Tun Round Fight Last Night.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 .- Tom Sharkey, the American sailor, who first saw the light of day in Dundalk, Ireland, which is better known as the "Gap of the North," now stands the only heavy-weight possibility for championship honors against the title now held by Bob Fitzsimmons.

He whipped "Kid" McCoy good and hard in the tenth round of what was to have been a 20 round battle for heavyweight honors at the Lenox Athletic club last night, and by doing so the Irish-American pugilist forged his way so positively and undeniably to the front rank that Fitzsimmons, with whom he fought in the west some time ago and obtained the favorable decision of Referee Wyatt Earp, must now consider the sailor pugilist's claim to championship honors without any de-

Sharkey last night was a revelation to those who saw him a couple of years ago. His ring work and generalship are so vastly superior to his exhibitions when he first came to the east as a fighter that the improvement is almost

McCoy, who came out second best in the conflict, is also worthy of unstinted praise. He began as a welterweight and fought his way up to the heavyweight division. In all his fights up to last night McCoy showed that he was possessed of a degree of ability in fistic work that was unequaled, and despite the fact that he was beaten-and soundly beaten at that—last night, he is still the peer of any pugilist that ever donned a boxing glove so far as ring generalship is concerned.

When McCoy sent Sharkey twice to the floor in the third round last night, no one doubted the "Kid's" ability to hit hard, and many thought that he had Sharkey at his mercy.

This idea was soon dispelled when the Irishman began to get to his man, and, taking everything into consideration, Sharkey's work stamps him as the toughest proposition that any aspiring heavyweight pugilist can try to solve. In addition to his wonderful strength and quickness Sharkey had one great advantage, and that was the services and advice given him by Tom O'Rourke, his manager and chief second, who, quick to see and take advantage of every opportunity, aided the winner at every point during the contest.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. - Secretary Long has announced that as a result of the revision of the proceedings of the court of inquiry at New York into the circumstances connected with the grounding of the battleship Massachusetts and the reopening of the case by the court it had rendered a verdict that the ship grounded through the negligence of Pilot Bell, Captain Ludlow and Lieutenant Commander Potts, the navigator of the vessel. FRANCE'S DEPUTIES.

The Chamber Greatly Stirred Up Over Dreyfus.

M. DESCHANEL ELECTED PRESIDENT

Paris Streets Lined With Guards-A Fall of the Ministry Imminent. New Judge Named to Suoceed Beaurepaire.

PARIS, Jan. 11.-The French chamber reopened yesterday, and the Palais Bourbon, where the chamber of deputies sits, was crowded. Everything points to a stormy sitting of the deputies. It is expected that a vote of confidence will be taken and that it will possibly lead to a fall of the ministry. Addressing the deputies, M. Boyssen implored them to put an end to the "painful and dangerous divisions" and to again become "calm and self reliant, side by side with our valiant army." All the streets in the vicinity of the

Palais Bourbon were lined with excited crowds, which were kept in order by an imposing force of police and republican

The well known deputies were received with mingled cheers and hooting. An enthusiastic deputy offered his seat to M. Quesney de Beaurepaire, the former president of the civil section of the court of cassation, who has just resigned that office and attacked the court on the ground that it is in favor of Dreyfus.

The session was opened at 2:15 p. m. under the presidency of the senior member of the house, M. Charles Boyssot, Radical Republican, representing the Chalon-sur-Saone division of Saoneet-Loire, where he was born in 1817.

The chamber shortly afterward reelected M. Deschanel to the presidency of the house by a vote of 323 against 187 votes cast for M. Brisson.

M. Quesnay de Beaurepaire's resignation has worked up Dreyfus excitement to the fever point. It is generally accepted that the court is preparing to render judgment in favor of Dreyfus.

The cabinet met yesterday afternoon under the presidency of President Faure, who issued a decree accepting the resignation of M. de Beaurepaire and appointing Counselor Ballot de Beaupre to succeed him.

The minister of justice, M. Lebret, an nounced that M. Mazeau, the first president of the court of cassation, will preside over the criminal section of the court of cassation instead of M. Loew when the Dreyfus inquiry is terminated and the court meets to take a decision.

The minister also read the telegraphic deposition from Dreyfus, in which he not only declared he had never confessed that he was guilty to Captain Lebrun-Renault, who had charge of the prisoner at the time of his condemnation and degradation, but insisted that he had always protested his innocence. The Dreyfus affair has now entered one of its bitterest chapters. Accusations, vituperations and threats are raging in the cafes and among the scores of Boulevard sheets, many of which have found their sole reason for existence for months past in the unhappy strife they foment.

It is regarded by impartial observers as the most dangerous factor to the institutions of the republic the affair has yet developed that the president of one of the chambers of the court of cassation should assume the role of a leader of the agitation against the tribunal. declaring that 16 of his colleagues are conspiring to defeat the ends of justice.

MR. AND MRS. PULLMAN PART. It Is Said That These Two Have Agreed to Disagree,

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.-After less than five months of married life George M Pullman and his wife are said to have agreed to disagree.

The son of the late palace car magnate was in the city for three hours Saturday, hurrying south to a winter resort. His wife has rented their house at Freehold, N. J., whither they went after their romantic marriage, and wil come to Chicago, ostensibly on a visit to her parents.

Friends of the young couple say that the two quarreled a week ago, whereupon the husband left their home, declaring he would never return.

When George was in Chicago Saturday, he visited his father-in-law between train times; but, it is said, he received no balm for his wounds not any assurance that the father who so summarily broke off the engagement between Walter Sanger Pullman and his daughter would labor to effect ar understanding for the more favored

The rumor of the young people's estrangement recalls the personal history of the twins subsequent to their father's sudden death and the publication of a will which cut them off with an annuity of $3,000 each.

QUAY MUST STAND TRIAL. The Supreme Court Denies Senator Change of Venue.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.—United States Senator Quay must stand trial at once. His petition asking for a removal of the case from the local court was denied by the supreme court yesterday.

The case was remanded to the quarter sessions court of this city for trial. and the costs of the proceedings were placed on the petitioners.

The news was hailed with delight by the anti-Quay men as tending to kill the senator's chances for re-election to the senate despite the vote for him in the Republican caucus. The case being ordered to trial, Quay must meet the issue squarely as to whether or not he speculated with and received interest on the state's money in the People's bank. It is impossible to postpone the trial, as that policy would certainly be fatal to the candidate, but once the case is fairly started in court the anti-Quay people will make every effort to prolong it until the senator's following in the legislature becomes disintegrated.

The petitioners were United States Senator M. S. Quay, his son, Richard R. of the province, and the only expense Quay, and ex-State Treasurer Benjamin F. Haywood, and the petition was for a writ of certiorari removing the trial of the conspiracy case against them from the local court to the supreme court on the ground of a conspiracy by Gordon and others against Quay.

ALBANY, Jan. 11.-Governor Roosevelt had no announcements to make yesterday in the way of appointments. The superintendency of public works is still an unsettled matter. It was thought that the governor would have made up his mind by yesterday, but he stated that there would not possibly be any developments before Thursday. They come mostly from men unknown to public life, with few or none of the general qualifications necessary to satisfy the public mind in making a

GENERAL WOOD HERE

He Brings Favorable Report From Santiago.

PROVINCE IS NOW PROSPEROUS.

Schools Are Being Opened, Roads Built and Cities Cleaned-Reports of Dissatisfaction Exaggerated. Captain of Transport III.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.-The United States transport Mississippi, Captain Hopkins, which sailed from Santiago on the evening of Jan. 4, arrived yesterdes morning with all well on board and proceeded to an anchorage off Liberty

The big transport as she entered the Narrows shortly after 8 o'clock presented a handsome appearance, hes spars from the trucks to the deck being draped with flags and bunting, which stood out boldly in the fresh northwest breeze.

On board the transport were General Wood, Lieutenant Hanna, aid-de-camp; Dr. Castillo, a brother of the Cuban General Castillo, and Colonel Gibson, who superintended the distribution of provisions to the starving Cubans.

There were also on board the transport ten army officers belonging to various regiments, 55 discharged and convalescent soldiers and 44 civilians, among this number being'14 nurses.

Four bodies incased in metallic caskets were brought home on board the Mississippi.

One of these bodies was that of Mise Helen Towers, a nurse, who died recently at San Juan, Porto Rico.

Captain Stinson, the commander of the Mississippi, was left in a hospital at Santiago suffering from pneumonia. He was taken sick Dec. 24 while at Ponce, Porto Rico, and on reaching Santiago it was deemed prudent to send him ashore to the military hospital rather than risk his life on getting into cold weather aboard the transport. Chief Officer Hopkins was then placed in command, with H. E. Mitchell, United States quartermaster, in charge.

General Wood, who was a passenger on the Mississippi, when asked regarding the protest of the people of Santiago over the disposal of the funds of that province, said he did not care to talk on that matter before he visited Washington. There was some disat-isfaction, but nothing to amount to anything. At the time he left Santiago everything was in splendid shape. schools were being organized and ready to receive scholars and nearly 1,000 miles of roads had been constructed throughout the province. The customs receipts were the largest ever collected and turned into the Spanish treasury. Funds were available for meeting the expenses of the administration to the United States would be the cost of maintaining her army. A THOUSAND KISSES.

They Must Be Paid by a Pretty Kansas Girl.

Miss Lucy Withers Bet with Ranchman Owens on Jerry Simpson's Election to Congress and Lost the Wager.

Kapsas, with her-usual reputation of producing many strange and wonderful things, is again at the front with one of the most peculiar election bets that has so far come to light.

Out in Greant county, which is one of the 36 counties that go to make up the big Seventh congressional district, over which Jerry Simpson and C. I. Long have so bitterly contested for the last few years, there is situated at the junction of the north fork of the Cimmaron river and Prairie Dog creek the little town of Golden, a "short-grass" hamlet, inasmuch as it is situated in that part of Kansas known as the shortgrass region.

Golden is not what could be rightfully called a prosperous village, nor was it expected it would be when first settled; it consists of one general merchandise store, post office and a few dwellings. The inhabitants of the surrounding country are mostly ranchmen and cowboys who center at Golden for the purpose of supplies.

It was Miss Lucy Withers, a resident of Golden, who brought this isolated prairie town to the attention of the public. Miss Withers is a comely woman of some 20 Kansas summers, a school teacher, and lives with her widowed mother. She has always been a great admirer of Jerry Simpson, from Medicine Lodge, and never loses an opportunity to champion his cause.

A few evenings before election there was a social gathering in the neighborhood, and it was during this time that Miss Withers and a young and well-todo ranchman, by the name of Harold Owens, took opposing views on the political situation,

The young teacher questioned Mr. Owens as to the depth of his faith in his candidate's election, and whether or not he was willing to wager some of his possessions to show his confidence.

This was somewhat of a setback for the young ranchman, but he informed her that he had 30 of the finest steers that ever grazed in Grant county, all of which he valued at $1,000, and which he would bet that Mr. Long would be elected to congress. "What have you, Miss Withers, to show your faith in the return of Simpson to congress?" asked the ranchman. Now, the teacher owned no steers, neither had she anything equivalent to 30 head of cattle, but she determined not to be outdone. She hesitated a moment and said:

"I will wager you 1,000 kisses at one dollar each against your steers that Jerry Simpson wins.'

The young ranchman had civilized bucking bronchos, mastered the lariat and many other difficult feats in a ranchman's life, but this offer was the most perplexing proposition that had ever been handed him. There was something fascinating about the collateral, and he replied:

"I will accept with the understanding that in ease I win you will allow me to collect my winnings on the installment plan.'

"You may suit your pleasure about

"Then it is an agreement and our listeners are the witnesses."

The election resulted in a bad defeat for Mr. Simpson. Harold Owens says he will collect 20 kisses a week until the obligation is canceled.

Betting on Her Age. Here's a good story of how a woman lest at Monte Carlo, all through fem.nine vanity. She entered the Salle while a former friend and protector of hers was winning in a style that seemed destined to break the bank. "I am so glad to see you here, prince, and in such luck, too," she exclaimed. "Do tell me a lucky number; it is sure to win, for you are now in the vein." The prince placed a pile of gold louis before the lady, whose beauty had successfully defied the effects of 36 severe winters, and said: "Put it all in the number of your years." She reflected, hesitated, and then placed the pile on 27. An instant later the croupler sang out: "Thirty-six red wins." The woman muttered: "Ah! mon Dien; 36 mexactly my age," and fainted on the pot.

Dog and Gont Help a Pennsylvania Woman to Kill a Bear of No Mean Size.

There is a bearskin hanging on the Sheffer barn, near Mill Rift, Pike county, Pa, and thereby hangs the tale of a heroic dog and an invincible goat. For the sake of unity it must also be recorded that the venerable Mrs. Sheffer and an ax were in at Bruin's death.

Mrs. Sheffer was hanging out the clothes. She had her mouth and her apron full of clothespins and was putting a freshly boiled shirt on the clothesline behind the house when she

She turned and saw a bear balancing himself on his hind legs. She uttered a piercing shriek, and the bear dropped to all fours and started in pursuit. Mrs. Sheffer reached the house and closed the door behind her.

Around the corner of the house came "Dick," the brindle bulldog, and from the rear sped "Bill," the goat. That bear felt a violent blow. He turned to avenge the indignity. Sharp teeth fastened in his throat and a dog swung to and fro like a pendulum. The bear brushed his paws down the dog's sides and shook him off.

Then he saw before him a white and black object, which lowered its head. There was a collision, and the bear. dazed, put a paw feebly to his head. Canine teeth seized him by the left hind leg. The bear swung about and landed a blow on the dog's head. He exposed an expanse of neck at the same time, and upon this weak point fell a blow from hard horns and harder head.

Mrs. Sheffer from a window saw a wild, flerce fray. There was the goat backing and charging with the precision of a battleship in action. The dog, with his head covered with crimson marks of the fight and with his sides badly scarred, fought like a capine devil.

The bear was in the act of crumpling up the dog as patrons of a dairy restaurant dispose of Japanese napkins when he received a consignment of initial velocity in his side. He let go of the dog and pursued the goat, while the dog attacked from the side.

Mrs. Sheffer then decided to join in the battle. The bear was badly winded. The dog was minus an eye and the goat's whiskers flowed crimson to the ground. Two hundred pounds of panting and exhausted bear were trying to recover for another round.

Mrs. Sheffer made a detour to the woodshed and picked up an ax. Dog and goat got out of range and the polished steel fell upon the head of that bruised and heartbroken bear. That was the end of him.

"Kin I cum in?" said the meek looking person outside.

The conductor staggered against the stove after seeing the ticket in the outheld hand. The old man sat down, felt the back of the plush chair in tront, and gazed about delightedly for an hour. "I'm glad he was leaving Kansas. His ticket rend Oklahoma City," said the conductor.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

TO GAIN FLESH, TO BLEEP WELL. TO KNOW WHAT APPETITE AND GOOD DIGESTION MEAN.

Nake a Test of Htmart's Dyspepsia

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think their nerves are to blame and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicine. The real seat of mischief is lost sight of. The stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every organ. In some cases the beart palpitates and is irregular; in others the kidueys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite with accumulations of gas, sour risings and hearthurn. It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia fablets will core any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite,

"Some weeks ago my brother heard me say something about indigestion, and taking a box from his pocket said 'Try Stuart's Tablets.' I did, and was promptly relieved. Then I investigated the nature of the tablets and became satisfied that they were made of just the right things and in just the right proportions to aid in the assimilation of rtily endorse them in all re specis, and I keep them constantly on hand."

HILLSIDE CEMETERY CORPORATION President fru L. thee Makes the Wirestors' Report to the Lot Owners-A Bost detinientery Chewing-What Mas Been Bene and What the Corporation Noode.

The extreme cold of Tuesday night kept many interested in Hillside Cometery Corporation from bearing very encouraging reports from the officers. The meeting was beld in Nearing Hall, and fourteen neaple were present.

President Ira L. Case stated the object of the meeting and made several statements during the evening, which summed up are as follows:

Several meetings of the directors were held during the time in which the new hands had been at the wheel, at one of which the following officers were elected: President-Ira L. Case,

Vice President-John E. Iseman. Secretary-James G. Harding. Treasurer-George E. Beakes.

Committee of Supervision-James A Clark, J. A. Howell, George Smith.

The directors had quite a task in securing title for that part of the property at the head of Meadow avenue and not included in the original purchase of land for the cemetery, several complicated matters being found in the hauds of the receiver. A warrantee deed was not secured until June 30. The Hillarde Cemetery Corporation finally secured the title for the property of the Hillside Cemetery Association and the outlying land above referred to for $20,000. Certificates of indebtedness were then issued to pay this and $1,000 being needed at once to pay off outstanding accounts, the directors gave their personal notes for $1,000 and hold a certificate for that amount as collateral. The remaining $19,000 is held by claimants. The report of the secretary, corroborated by the treasurer's report, gives the following figures:

For	maintenance on	assessment made Sept. 1 $ 669 00 Labor, opening graves, etc..... 319 15 Sale of lots.... Total......$1,773 15 EXPENSES. Labor and expenses...... $ 954 34

Office furniture..... Interest on certificates indebtness... Interest on notes..... 18 00 asked to make an appointment with

In his report Mr. Case said: "The corporation started July 1, $20,000 in debt. Money had to be borrowed for first pay roll, and the sum of $200 was borrowed for three months. At the time this note matured it was paid off. The directors have paid the six months' interest due in December and we feel very much encouraged by our success in the first six months of our management. We have met with many disadvantages, and it is putting it very mildly when we say that we had some doubt as to our ability to take care of the interest due in December. "Money received for the lots must g. now, first to pay interest, next to develop the newly acquired part of the cemetery, and next to pay the principal. We hope to develop quite a tract and pay off some indebtedness during the coming twelve months.

"Several matters need attention as once. There must be a new map. The one given the new corporation by the old was a back number and very incomplete. A perfect muo must be made. The directors want every deed that was issued since June 4, 1885, shown them (if not already presented), in order that a complete copy may be placed in a book kept for that purpose. "The cemetery needs a public receiving vault. We believe it would be a good investment. Take such weather as this when a sudden death occurs and the relatives have not yet secured a lot. They dislike to select one in a snow covered cemetery. The remains could rest in this vault until better weather comes. "We also need a fence-a serviceable fence-around the cemetery to prevent people from crossing over the truct.

"We need a safe for the keeping of records. If those now in our possession should be lost they could never be duplicated.'

Mr. Case then asked if there were any complaints, criticisms or suggestions from those present.

Mr. Iseman then complimented Mr. Case on the comprehensive statement he had made, and Moses Crist added: "I am pleased and gratifled by the encouraging report."

John T. Ogden said that he felt the same as he knew others present did. He was well satisfied with the outlook and with the report of the management. He had not expected to live to see such a bright condition of affairs.

Mr. Case thanked the speakers in behalf of the management, but added that they were not thin skinned and were ready to hear complaints or criticisms as well as compliments.

Secretary Harding said that nearly one thousand lot owners had failed to pay the assessment of $2, and that there is now less than $100 left in the maintenance fund.

Mr. Crist said that he had cheerfully paid his $2 and was endeavoring to induce others to do the same. The minutes as read by Secretary

Harding were approved on motion of C. Z. Taylor and J. A. Clark. The report made by Mr. Case was approved on motion of Mr. Crist, seconded by Mr. Ogden. The treasurer's report was approved on motion of Mr. Taylor, seconded by Mr. Crist.

On motion of Mr. Crist, seconded by Mr. Ogden, the meeting proceeded to vote informally for three directors in the place of George Smith, J. A. Clark and J.

For the information of persons seeking country bomes, during the season of 1899 the New York, Ontario and Western Railway Compuny will egain issue early in the spring the twenty-first asseal "Summer Homes," giving a list of the hotels, boarding houses and farm houses along the line, with a synopsis of their attractions and conveniences, together with a description of the country, its climate, latitude above the sea, etc., and all information sought after and desired by city boarders.

Each year 25,000 copies of the "Summer Holines" are printed and distributed in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Philadelphia and other large cities among those classes who are seeking country board during the summer. More money can be made in one season from the proper entertainment of summer boarders than can be obtained from the sale of the entire farm products of an ordinary farm.

This makes by far the cheapest and best means of advertising at the command of those desiring summer boarders. Startling rumors are current in London and other European capitals to the effect that France, Russia and Germany are planning an alliance against England in the far East, and the report is given an air of credibility by the fact that the French Ambassador at Berlin had a long conference, Tuesday, with Emperor William. England derives some comfort from the belief that while Germany may encourage the dream of such an alliance it will in the end have nothing to do with it since no practical advantage could accrue to German interests from entering such a combination.

The Spanish general also asserts that natives of Visayas have again remsed to permit the Americans to land, threatening to resist by force if an attempt is made to do so. The Americans, therefore, according to Gen. Gen. Rios also alleges that the rebels are determined to fight the Americans before reinforcements come. Gen. Rics says that Aguinaldo's proclamation has produced immense enthusiasm among

It is Foul Blood's Advertisement

But It is Soon Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Yes, Scrofula, if anything, may be called the advertisement of foul blood. It is the scourge of the world - offensive, painful, debilitating, stubborn and well nigh unendurable.

Outward applications do not cure, they only drive the difficulty to new quarters. Emollients may palliate, they cannot abolish the evil. There is but one sure way out, and that is to eliminate the taint from the blood.

There is one remedy that can effect this, and it is the only one that, so far as we know, has almost invariably succeeded -even where the system has been poisoned by long years of taint, and the ravages to be repaired are tremendous. That remedy is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read this:

"My daughter was afflicted with impure blood. There were running sores all over her body and they caused her much suffering. We tried medicines that were recommended as blood purifiers, but could not see that they did any good. A friend told me about Hood's Sarsaparilla and I began giving the girlthis medfeine. The result was that she was perfeetly cured after taking a few bottles. She has had no symptoms of scrofula sores since that time." MARIETTA M. BMITH, South Middleboro, Mass.

Gregory-Lawrence,

Alderman Robert Lawrence's house was the scene of a very pretty home wedding, this afternoon, when his eldest daughter, Miss Cora Belle, was united in marriage to Osmer Milton Gregory, a well known employe of the O. and W.'s freight office. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Wilson, the contracting parties standing before a beautiful bank of flowers.

The bride was prettily attired in a travelling suit of brown, and was a most attractive bride. The couple were unattended. The ushers were Henry Birtwhistle, Jr., and Howard Lawrence, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. E. G. Whittier. The house decorations were pink and white, and Florist Bartholomew had dene his prettiest.

Court of Appeals Affirms With Costs Judgment in Ociendant's Pavor,

Among the decisions handed down by the Court of Appeals, Tuesday, was one in the "hypodontine" case of Dr. A. W. Sweezy against Dr. H. C. McBriar in favor of the defendant. Dr. Sweezi sought to secure an injunction restraining b.. McBriar from using and advertising a local anaesthetic called 'hypodontine," alleging that he had the exclusive right to use it in this city. Dr. McBriar asserted that he bought the preparation in New York, where plaintiff had placed it on sale and that no special lincense for its use was therefore necessary. The decision of the judge before whom the case was tried was in defendant's favor and the judgment which was affirmed by the Appellate Division has just been renffirmed with costs by the Court of Appeals.

The costs in the case amount to a very considerable sum, several hundred times the value of the one bottle of "hypodontine" in dispute.

ENCOURAGING NEWS FROM OTIS He Has Been Instructed to Use Gentleness in His Dealings.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—It can be stated on authority that such news as was received yesterday from General Otis is rather reassuring than otherwise as to the situation in the Philippines and that he made no allusion to a hostile collision. He has been instructed to use gentleness in dealing with the insurgents and to advise and co-operate with Admiral Dewey. There is some reason to believe that the present situation may be protracted longer than would be naturally expected and that there will be no open hostilities immediately, if at all.

The question has arisen here as to the exact purpose to be served now in attempting to selze Iloilo. Originally it was intended to release the Spanish force there besieged, but by their evacuation of that place they have removed that incentive, and were it not for the false encouragement it would give the insurgents there is little doubt that the United States troops would not be moved against Iloilo. Meanwhile the navy is expected to draw a cordon around the island of Panay and also Luzon should it be deemed necessary to do so to prevent the further supply of arms and munitions of war to the in-

Conference at Manila.

MANILA, Jan. 11.—At the instance of Aguinaldo, the insurgent leader, an important conference has been held by commissioners appointed by himself and General Otis, the American commander. Aguinaldo's representatives were General Flores, Colonel Aquilles and Senor Tores. The American commissioners were General Hughes, Colonel Smith of California and Lieutenant Colonel Crowder, judge advocate,

The commissioners met in Manila for the purpose, as declared in the order issued by General Otis, of conferring on the situation and of arriving at a mutual understanding of the intent, purposes, aim and desires of the people of the Philippines and the United States. There was a frank discussion.

Belated St. Paul In Port.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 .- The belated American line steamer St. Paul, Captain Jamison, which sailed from Southampton on Jan. 1, arrived at quarantine at 6:30 last evening, after an eventful and unusually stormy passage. During a heavy gale, the ship's position being latitude 50.17, longitude 22.02, Chief Engineer Hunter, who was making his usual inspection of the steamer's engines, discovered a flaw or crack in the main steam pipe supplying the starboard engine. Captain Jamison was quickly notified of the condition of the steam pipe, and it was decided to reduce the pressure of steam on both engines to 100 pounds, just one half the engines' capacity when running at full speed. The steamer proceeded on her voyage, making from 121/2 to 14 knots, as the weather permitted. All on board ship were well.

Peace Treaty Today.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.-Unless the plans of the administration fail, the peace treaty will be acted upon favorably today by the committee on foreign relations and reported back to the senate for immediate consideration. A quorum of the committee is now in the city, and the absence of Senator Turpie, who is ill, and Senator Daniel, who is in Cuba, will not prevent definite action being taken today. Friends of the treaty are anxious to get it before the senate, so that debate may proceed at once. Senator Frye has made a personal poll of the senate and is convinced that the

Dr. Henry Van Dyke, pastor of the Brick Presbyterian church, Fifth avenue and Thirty-seventh street, has received a call to the chair of literature in Johns Hopkins university, at Baltimore. Under Dr. Van Dyke the Brick church has reached the largest membership in its history.

ST. JOHN'S, N. It is understood that he will decline to agree to any fishery arrangement involving bounties to American fishermen or the American mercantile marine.

Senator Lodge Renominated.

BOSTON, Jan. 11.—Senator Henry Cahot Lodge was unanimously renominated yesterday by the Republican legislative caucus, and as the party majority is overwhelming this assures his election today. The Democrats may not make any nomination, as Congressman Fitzgerald, who had been selected as a candidate, refuses to run.

Fatal Kentucky Fight.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 11 .- A special to The Evening Post from London, Laurel county, Ky., says: "Details of a fatal fight have reached here from Sexton's Creek, in Clay county, between Tom Whitmore and Dan Parker on one side and A. C. Turner and John Murray on the other, which resulted in Parker killing Turner instantly. The fight was brought about by the rivalry of Parker and Murray for the hand of a young woman,"

Commodore Philip's New Command. WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 .- The navy department has been notified that Commodore Philip will assume command of the New York navy yard next Saturday, relieving Admiral Bunce, who has been holding on, although retired, until his successor could assume direction of affairs. MR. MASON'S SPEECH

The Senator From Illinois Opposed to Expansion.

MAKES DEFENSE FOR AGUINALDO.

Introduces Declaration of Independshee as a Resolution - Answers Senator Platt of Connecticut. Paya His Kespects to Croker.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.-In the United States senate yesterday Senator Mason of Illinois spoke on his resolution to have the Declaration of Independence adopted as an evidence of the future policy of the republic. He said in part: "It is easy to drift with the tide, but it is not always safe. It is pleasant to remain in the harbor when the storm is on, but sometimes the storm within the inner conscience is more dangerous to peace of mind than the storm without the harbor is to human life. "The simple resolution I have introduced has nothing necessarily to do with any treaty, so far as I am informed, nor do I intend to speak of any proposed treaty. "The resolution I present does not involve a question of law, but is a question as to the future policy of this republic. My resolution recites the Declaration of Independence. I do not apologize for the resolution. I regret its ne-"We ought to begin to learn the inexorable law of compensation. You cannot govern the Philippines without taxing them. You have not yet their consent, and the proposition of taxation without representation is made again Look out for tea parties. Those little semisocial functions are likely to break out even there, for 'Hail, Columbia,' and 'Yankee Doodle' have been heard in the archipelago.

"The other day when the distinguished senator from Massachusetts asked the senator from Connecticut (Platt) what he was going to do with the sentence that 'all just powers of government are derived from the consent of the governed he answered, 'From the consent of some of the governed."

"Mr. President, when any great cause which is agitating the minds of the people needs for its defense such shallow and un-American evasions as this, that cause will not live long in the minds of intelligent people.

"The Filipino is begging to treat with us as to his own. and. He acknowledges our gallant service. There is no honest commercial treaty that an honest nation could ask that they are not willing to consent to. They want liberty, as we did, and when 70,000,000 people have heard their cry for mercy and independence the father in New England will plead for the father in Manila, the mother in Hinois will pray for the poor mother in the islands of the sea, the fathers will vote as the mothers pray, the poisoned view of selfishness will have had its run, and God help the party that urges war on the native who defends only his liberties and his home.

"Ah, Mr. President, have we got to fight and plead for these people as we did for Cuba? Are we to hear Agulnalco and his followers called robbers and cutthroats, as we heard of the brave Garcia and his followers within the last 12 months in this chamber? Why not make them our friends forever instead of our enemies?

Referring to the statements that the Americans intended to give the Philippines liberty, Senator Mason said:

"How is this liberty to be established? Is it to be done hypodermically with a 13 inch gun? Are not our men and ships lying off Hollo? Did not the native who has been our ally drive the Spaniard out? Are they not in possession of their own land, their own homes? Are they guilty of any crime except love of home and country? Having worn the Spanish yoke so long, do you wonder at their fear of ours? Shall we shoot them and burn their homes because God Almighty has planted in their hearts and on their lips the sweet song of liberty? Forbid it, Almighty

"Shall we show them how to run municipalities with boodle aldermen?] see the chief of that great ethical society known as Tammany Hall says, 'Keep the islands.' Shall we send him to teach the untaught Filipino cleanliness in municipal politics? Shall we teach them to worship money or the man who has it? Shall we have special instructors to teach them how to kill postmasters and their wives and children because of their complexion? Shall we have illustrations showing in large pictures the works of our mobs within the last 90 days in North Carolina, South Carolina and Illinois?"

The House Committee Now Rendy to Report the Measure.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.-The house devoted its undivided attention again yesterday to the bill for the codification of the criminal laws of Alaska, and when adjournment was had all but ten pages of the bill had been disposed of. The Hawaiian bill was finally perfected yesterday by the house subcommittee on territories and an agreement reached to favorably present it to the full committee today, the expectation being that it will be reported to the house today or within a few days. As agreed on the bill preserves in all essential particulars the bill presented by the Hawaiian commission. A territorial form of government is established, with a governor appointed by the president, a delegate elected to congress and a local legislative body. The main changes made by the subcommittee consist in striking out the property qualification of members of the house of representatives and of electors of members and amending the provisions as to the qualifications of senators so that $1,000 of property or $600 of income shall suffice, The provision is retained for the appointment of judges for life and their appointment by the governor. This provision has caused much discussion, and it will be one of the points of a minority report.

A New Account of the Cuban Leader's Rare Generalship.

Never Published Because It Would Have Excited Hard Feeling If Made Public During lits Lifetime.

[Special Washington Letter.]

ESTING beneath the one-starred flag, under whose folds for many years he bravely and skillfully fought for liberty and independence. I saw the body of Gen. Calixto Garcia, the Cuban patriot soldier; and on the following day accompanied the procession to Arlington national cemetery, where his mortal remains were placed in the receiving vault.

By command of Maj. Gen. Miles a guard of honor was sent to his room as of suggestions and requests, but they soon as it became known that Gen. Gar- | were heartily accepted as commands, cia had passed away. The artillery- showing the good will and alacrity of a men stood guard there until the day of the funeral, when a full battalion formed in procession, marched to the church and then to the cemetery, where a salute was fired as the body was carried into the vault.

Maj. Gen. Joseph Wheeler was there. He said: "While there is no precedent for thus bonoring the commander of the forces of a government which has not received formal recognition in international law, we do right to form this precedent, because we gave Gen. Garcia substantial recognition on the battlefield, where we fought side by side against Spain's armed forces. The stars and stripes floated beside the flag of Cuba Libre when we surrounded Santiago and captured the place. Gen. Garcia was a grand, good soldier, and the people of Cuba would expect us to honor him, living and dead."

It had been the intention of President McKinley to appoint Gen. Garcia governor-general of Cuba soon after the completion of the evacuation by GARCIA'S CAMPAIGN. | age and the freedom of Cuba is achieved, he will retire to enjoy the blessings he has so largely aided in winning for the oppressed people of Cuba. He will be honored while living and widely lanented when dead, but the names which call out the pathos in the history of Cuban independence are Marti, Maceo and Garcia.

> The participation of Gen. Garcia in the siege of Santiago has never been officially promulgated in this country. and none of the metropolitan rewspapers has published the facts, because they have not had access to them. The writer has learned from officers at army headquarters, in the war department building, some facts on the subject which are now written for the first time

While Gen. Miles was endeavoring to embark the Fifth corps, which was to go to Cuba under Shafter's command. he received word from Gen. Garcia ask ing that instructions be sent to him for cooperation with the American army. Gen. Miles sent instructions in the form soldier and patriot. So anxious was Carcia to show his readiness to cooperate that his responses were hurried forward through different channels in order that in case one should miscarry another might reach its destination. Gen. Garcia said that he would at once concentrate his forces at the points indicated; that he would march without delay; that he had already sent forces to prevent aid going to Santiago from Holguin; and that he would guard other approaches to Santiago. How earnest was his purpose, and how energetically executed, is evidenced by the fact that on the arrival of Shafter's expedition. Garcia's forces were already in position all around Santiago, practically encompassing that city and the Spanish fleet lying in its barbor.

A glance at the positions seized proves that a superior soldierly instinct had guided him in their selection and seizure, the result obtained being the practical beleaguerment of the city, fleet and harbor, and plainly indicates the Spanish troops. That appointment | the point where the American forces would have done more than all else | should have landed, and the tactics that could have been done to satisfy , which obviously could not have failed the Cuban people of the kindly and fraternal intentions of the government at Washington towards the people of Cuba. It was the purpose of the president to depend largely upon Gen. Garcia for the formulation and development of a stable government, gradually bringing the people to a state of civilization and appreciation of liberty.

Marti, Maceo and Garcia are names that will linger in the grateful memories of the friends of free Cuba throughout generations. They are the great martyrs who were foremost in the conflict and fell before they saw the full fruition of their heroism and sacrifice.

Marti was the leader of the Cuban revolution. He was the youngest of all, but he planned and put into execution the beginning of the war that swept the flag and power of Spain from the lovely isle. He fell in one of the earliest skirmishes of the war, and was the first of the great martyrs whose | he directed Gen. Garcia to prevent furblood gave Cuba independence.

Maceo was the Stonewall Jackson of the Cuban rebellion. He had won the respect even of Spain by his heroism and skill as a military leader in the Ten Years' war, and he fell by the hand of an assassin just when the battle of Cuban independence became a hopeful one. He will rank in history as one of the few men who have taught the world that the negro can stand abreast with the white man in the line of great war-

Garcia, like Maceo, was one of the great heroes of the Ten Years' rebellion, and he never bowed to Spanish authority. Once, when wounded and unable to make his escape from the Spanish soldiers, he fired his pistol into his own mouth, the bullet emerging from his forehead, leaving a ghastly mark to tell the atory of his undying hostility to Spanish rule. Reing left on the field as dead, his powerful constitution enabled him to recover. He played a most conspicuous part in the late insurrection and united his forces with the American ermy at Santingo. but escaped the perils of the field only to bring with him the dregs of disease which ended his great life on the very day that the news of peace between Spain and the United States, including the independence of Cubs, was proelaimed to the world.

to give the Americans, with the least possible loss of life, the possession of the enemy's fleet or its certain destruction and the possession of the city also. Gen. Garcia had sent 3,000 men to hold in check the 12,000 Spaniards stationed at Holguin; he had placed 2,000 men across the path which the 6,000 Span iards at Guantanamo would have to follow in an effort to reenforce Santiago. He also sent 1,000 men to execute a similar duty in the event that the 6,000 Spaniards at Manzanillo should attempt the same enterprise. The Cubans under Carcia participated in upwards of 20 skirmishes with the approaching reer forcements. Gen. Garcia was amazed when Shafter refused to give him reenforcen.ents to carry out his well laid plans. Shafter said that he wanted all the Spaniards in the province to get into Santiago so that he might capture them all at once. That was before the assault of July 1, when Shafter suffered a serious repulse. Then ther Spanish accessions, but it was too late. Shafter's principal blunder at Santiago was his first blunder, in changing Garcia's plans and taking the hardest possible route for his soldiers.

Although Gen. Garcia communicated his views with dignity, and received rebukes and contumely with suavity, he knew that he was right, and that Shafter was wrong; but he obeyed orders just the same, and fought with his men by night and by day until the city was captured by the brute courage of the soldiers themselves, without orders from the sick general who accompanied the Fifth corps, and who telegraphed his defeat on Sunday, July 3. At that very time, Gen. Garcia and Gen. Wheeler were on the firing line, declaring that they would succeed. Gen. Garcia and Gen. Wheeler were the real heroes there in active command.

Until the close of the campaign Gen. Garcia continued to advance until his right rested upon the bay, and he also sent out strong detachments to cover roads leading from Holgula and other Spanish garrisons to Santiago. Upon the surrender of the city of Santlago, Gen. Garcia, commanding the Cuban forces, was debarred from entrance into the city, and from any participation in the enjoyment of the honors or fruits of the victory.

Thereupon Cen, Carcia withdrew from association with Shafter, because his own services and the services of the men under his command were, as be throught, rewarded with lack of appro-SMITH D. PRY.

THE JANUABY TRIAL TERM.

BUSY TERM IN SIGHT.

The Calendar Called and All Cases in Which Witnesses Were Not On Mand Bent Over the Term-Only Four Cases Left B sagreement of the Jucy in the Tutt of furralt vs. the Brie-Non-suit in a Fire Damage Case-An Insurance ta-e on Trial.

Gosney, Jan. 10 .- The examination of witnesses in the case of Turrell vs. Erie Railroad Company, was continued this morning. Morris N, Pepper, George S. Carpenter, William Deltz, Charles B. Hatch, Eugene Caulfield, Edwin T. Frough, Robert Green and Heary C. Dryer, all of them employes of the railroad, were sworn. Each and every one of them rold the same story. They described the morning of the accident as being quite clear, and all of them swore positively that the bell on the engine was rung continuously, and the whistle blown at the crossing.

Michael Duffy, engineer of the train which struck young Turrell, was examined. He testified that the eagine was provided with a bell, which was worked by air pressure, and that it rang continnously all the way from the Erie depot. Mr. Duffy said that he did not blow the whistle for the crossing, but he did whistle off brakes a few hundred feet from John Fitzgibbon corroborated the evidence of the engineer in every detail. He stated upon cross-examination, that the boy ran into the engine and that the engine did not run into the boy, although he admitted that the engine was running twelve m les an hour.

Robert L. Crist, of Middletown, who was on the rear end of a passing train at the time of the accident, testified that young Turrell was running very fast across the tracks, and was unable to stop as the engine approached. He put put up his hands and caught hold of the driving rod which threw him between the trucks.

After the evidence was finally in, Mr. Bacon renewed his motion for a dismissal of the complaint, which was detherefore not entitled to recover.

THE BANQUET TO CO. I.

It is proposed to banquet Company I on the evening that it is must-red out, though no plans have yet been made. It is to be hoped that the committee will profit by the experience at Newburgh. There the giving of a banquet was so botched and boggled that the soldiers declined the proffered entertainment. The result is a disgraceful quarrel which has got into the newspapers and the 'editorials" and "letters from the people" are enough to make real friends of the soldiers heartsick. Capt. Sheehan has been drawn into it and he and Major Weston who was engineering the affair are now at pen's points.

Where Clothes are Heaned and Renovated for a Quarter,

Queer things happen in almost every line of business. Not very long ago E. H. Gregory was asked by a well known eitizen to put a suit of clothes, which were somewhat grimy, through his carpet cleaner and feather renovator. He did so and the charge was twenty five cents. As to the condition of the clothes after cleaning and renovating we have no information.
